

A.C. Newman, Elemental

It's elemental
When the story opens
It's elemental
Come sunset's gone
And no surprise then
When someone was delivered
He's had a long day
Talk to the living
It's not my way, true, to show best side for you
I fought my way through to the west side for you
It's elemental
Deeper than the daylight
And like a werewolf
There's someone on the inside
It's not my way, true, to show best side for you
I fought my way through to the west side for you
Not because I wanted to
Tooooooo
Nah nah nah nah nah
It's elemental
Watching from the rooftops
And no surprise then
Come sunset's gone
It's not my way, true, to show best side for you
I fought my way through to the west side for you
Not because I wanted to Tooooooo
Nah nah nah nah
