

A Camp, Frequent Flyer

Would you help me pack my bags, I might be leaving
I need some sweet assistance while i'm stealing
Some of your time
I hope that's fine

And i've got photographs of all, you're all i'm needing Forgiveness if i left you all believing
That i'm the one 'cause i feel like none
And i need something to direct me to it

'Cause i'm a frequent flyer, a notorious liar
But i can't get close enough
I never get close
I can't get close enough

I would love to tell my story from the ending
But the story's getting thin from heavy spending
And i need my man, and i need a fence
And i need someone to protect me from the wrench

I'm a frequent flyer, a notorious liar
But i can't get close enough
I never get close
I can't get close enough to the ending

I can't get close enough
I can't get close enough
To the sun
I can't get close enough

I'm a frequent flyer, a notorious liar
But i can't get close enough
I never get close
I can't get close enough... it seems
