

A Cursive Memory, Everything

This time I realize
You're looking this way
With your real eyes
You're the beat that can't stop
The peak of my plot
That deep in my thought
The time on my watch
The air that I breathe
The world that I see
You are, you are
I can never find a way
Or the right things to say
I guess I just didn't know how
You see, the longer that we wait
The more damn things can change
I guess we'll have to spell it out

[chorus]

You're my E-V-E-R-Y-T-H-I-N-G
Everywhere, everytime, everything
You're my E-V-E-R-Y-T-H-I-N-G
Everywhere, everytime, everything
You'r the beat that can't stop
The peak of my plot
That deep in my thought
The time on my watch
The air that I breathe
The world that I see
You are, you are
I can never find a way
Or the right things to say
I guess I just didn't know how
You see, the longer that we wait
The more damn things can change
I guess we'll have to spell it out

[chorus]

Girl, I can't stop thinking about anyone else but you (3x)

So go on (2x)

[chorus]

Girl, I can't stop thinking about anyone else but you

I can never find a way
Or the right things to say
I guess I just didn't know how
You see, the longer that we wait
The more damn things can change
I guess we'll have to spell it out

[chorus]

You're my E-V-E-R-Y-T-H-I-N-G
Everywhere, everytime, everything
You're my E-V-E-R-Y-T-H-I-N-G
Everywhere, everytime, everything
You're the beat that can't stop
The peak of my plot
That deep in my thought
The time on my watch
The air that I breathe
The world that I see
You are, you are

You see, the longer that we wait
The more damn things can change
I guess we'll have to spell it out

[chorus]

Girl, I can't stop thinking about anyone else but you (3x)

So go hard (2x)

[chorus]

Girl, I can't stop thinking about anyone else but you
