

A Day To Remember, Monument

It's Monday morning and I would kill for a chance to drive Get so far away from here with you my dear that I'll never leave your side Nobody knows the troubles I've seen in a van, on a soapbox for the world to see

Miles away, and I wish this didn't mean so much to me, to be a monument for the rest of them

We're getting older and I've started to fear for my life
Is this the way that it should be?
This whole thing's riding on me
It's been a long road so far with nowhere to turn
There's no looking back from here, no more dwelling on my fears

Miles away, and I wish this didn't mean so much to me, to be a monument for the rest of them

20 bucks says you'll remember me when you see me on your TV screen
It may be the first time, but won't be the last time

I'll scream so loud that everyone in this place will hear every word I say, cause this is my time, this
Let nothing stand in our way

20 bucks says you'll remember me when you see me on your TV screen
It may be the first time, but won't be the last time
