

A Day To Remember, The Plot To Bomb The Pan

I'VE LEARNED TO LET GO!
COME ON!

Here's a middle finger comin' straight from oca-la
I appreciate your judgment it's proved that I can't trust a word you say
Those must be some pair of binoculars that you see every move I make, so I'll never be a liar, but y

You'll get what's comin' to you
You're blinded by your instincts
I'm not your fucking game
I'm not so easily beat

I'm looking down at this mess that you've made, and I can't believe that I stayed so unhappy for so
Where did I go wrong?
I've got to get out of this, my hand is on the handle, and we're leaving everything behind
Goodbye for a lifetime

I'LL RIP THAT SCANDALOUS BITCH IN TWO!
WE'LL BRING THE NOISE

Try to pretend that I never even knew your name, cause everything you are disgusts me
Too bad I can't turn back time so I wouldn't be here
Oh what I'd give for you to disappear
Tell me girly, how's your edge?

You've got nothing better to do
I know why you can't see straight
I thought you were better than this but you're just like everyone else

I'm looking down at this mess that you've made, and I can't believe that I stayed so unhappy for so
Where did I go wrong?
I've got to get out of this, my hand is on the handle, and we're leaving everything behind
Goodbye for a lifetime

I'll make my stand right here with my friends

GET LOW

Now I know who my friends are
I'm never coming home
