

a dream too late, City Parks

My eyes have seen stranger things
So I don't want to be the one you lost
Sometimes falling apart is the only way
To see the cost

I'm drifting off to space

I'm singing
Oh, these times are taking over my heart
You're the owner
Well these times are taking over my heart

Space spans further away
All the planets seem to separate
'Cause love is moving away
And our lives begin to feel the same

I'm drifting off to space

And I'm singing
Oh, these times are taking over my heart
You're the owner
Well these times are taking over my heart

Oh, these times are taking over my heart
And I don't wanna feel lost inside the city park
You're the answer
Take the lonely right from my heart
