

A.F.I., Ever And A Day

Ever And A Day

lie in the comfort of sweet calamity

three tears i've saved for you.

i'd retrace the steps that lead me here but nothing lives behind me.

so i lie in this field bathed in the light that loves me,

will you help, help me to get through?

will you help, help me to be through?

will you help, help, three tears ive saved for you
