

A Fine Frenzy, Come On, Come Out

come on, come out
the weather is warm
come on come on

a spot in the shade
where oranges fall
a spot in the shade
away from it all

watching the sky, you're watching a painting coming to life, shifting and shaping staying inside, it all goes all goes by a blanket unfolds, a blanket to lie

the pieces of gold
they light up your eyes and now we're alone and now we're alive

staying inside, it all goes all goes all goes all goes by stopping the time, the rush and the waiting leave it behind, shifting and shaping keep it inside, it all goes all goes all goes all goes by it all goes passing by all goes passing by

leave it behind, shifting and shaping keep it inside, it all goes all goes by
