

A, French Kiss

Days are gone
Days are long and you're
You're looking older
Over your shoulder
You're never wrong
Carry on and you're
You want your baby to want you
Now you're stuck in a corner, yeah
Your ocean's drying out
Don't let your sun go down
Made a start
With the holes in your heart and you're
You're feeling much stronger
Your baby she wants you
You're always the same
You're always to blame and you're
You pray for the weekend
Now in at the deep end, yeah
Your ocean's drying out
Don't let your sun go down
Sunday mornings, gone away
They'll be back someday
Your ocean's drying out
Don't let your sun go down
Your ocean's drying out
Don't let your sun go down
Sunday mornings, gone away
They'll be back someday, yeah, yeah
Sunday mornings, gone away
They'll be back someday
