

A Girl Called Eddy, Life Thru The Same Lens

We see life through the same lens
That's what you said to me
And I knew that it was true
Until you threw my heart in the sea
How do I adjust my vision?
How do I pretend not to feel?
How do I act like we never met
When everything is telling me it was oh so real?
If it's life on the defence
The stinging pain of being made to fool
All the cynics and the irony
Won't save you when you're drowning in loves' sweet pool
How do I adjust my vision?
How do I pretend not to feel?
How do I act like we never met
When everything is telling me it was oh so real? Baby, baby, baby
It's only fair that you tell me
Just what it is you think I did wrong
If I was looking through the same lens
My prescription must've been all wrong
How do I adjust my vision?
How do I pretend not to feel?
How do I act like we never kissed
When everything is saying it was oh so real?
If we saw through the same lens
Then you'd see I want you here right now
Instead of waiting for the day
When memory has clouded everything we loved about it
How do I adjust my vision?
How do I pretend not to feel?
How do I act like we never met
When everything is telling me it was oh so real?
How do you adjust your vision?
How do you pretend not to care?
How do you act like we never met and that you didn't see
What we know was there, baby baby?
