

A-ha, Sunny mystery

You can run through every forest
You can sail the seven seas
You can climb the highest mountain
To try dissolve these memories
In case you never knew it
You can't undo it
You can jump of the edge of the world (These things you'll never find)
Hide out in some monestary (Out of sight and out of mind)
Lose your mind in meditation (These things you'll never find)
And never put your mind at ease (Out of sight and out of mind)
You think you're running to it
But you are wading through it;
A sunny mystery
You think you're running to it
But you are wading through it;
A sunny mystery
A sunny mystery
Life is the dream that you wake up to (These things you'll never find)
Dreams are the life from which you wake (Out of sight and out of mind)
Everybody makes the extra effort (These things you'll never find)
Never knowing what to do (Out of sight and out of mind)
But you know the answer
Yeah, you know the score
It feels just like before
It's a sunny mystery
And that's how it's got to be
Because no-one knows for sure
The outcome of this
Sunny mystery...