

A Kidnap In Color, Miss Scarlet In The Ballroom V

(feat. Justin Pence of 2*Sweet)

She fills out this room better than anyone ever could shes a looker and she knows it like you knew she would shes a sucker for a dance song, hes a sucker for her for the damsel in this dress distress is of no concern now the music sets the mood and the lighting is just right the proposition for this dance still stands the last one of the night did you really think shed let you go? shes the devil in a red dress and thats all you need to know. she blows a kiss across the room she says its all in the wine he never saw it coming now hes running out of time shes packing heat against her skin if you know what i mean fleeing the scene accused of murder in the first degree.
I'm on my best dressed to impress smooth talking behavior she came equipped with those lips and looks that god gave her i know i shouldnt be talking her into my bed but theres still the slightest chance that i wont wake up dead
