

A Kiss Could Be Deadly, 13 Reasons

Wrong again
Let me go before you break my heart again
Wrong again
You're wrong again
You hold it over me
And the day is wasted now
I'll be there soon enough
And it'd time you faced it now
So focused on the words
That you missed the context
And it's difficult enough
To admit was comes next
The words you said are ripping me apart
I knew it would end like this from the start
Wrong again
Let me go before you break my heart again
Wrong again
You're wrong again
I can make it on my own
And I would love to hate you
You'll score my ribs to show
That I'll always blame you
And taste the poison on your lips
Like the lies between them
That is innocent mistakes
Until you repeat them
The words you said are ripping me apart
I knew it would end like this from the start
Wrong again
Let me go before you break my heart again
Wrong again
One more game that I will never win
Wrong again
Let me go before you break my heart again
Wrong again
You're wrong again
Let me go before you break my heart again (x5)
