A Kiss Could Be Deadly, 13 Reasons

Wrong again
Let me go before you break my heart again
Wrong again
You're wrong again

You're wrong again You hold it over me

And the day is wasted now

I'll be there soon enough

And it'd time you faced it now

So focused on the words

That you missed the context

And it's difficult enough

To admit was comes next

The words you said are ripping me apart I knew it would end like this from the start

Wrong again

Let me go before you break my heart again

Wrong again

You're wrong again

I can make it on my own

And I would love to hate you

You'll score my ribs to show

That I'll always blame you

And taste the poison on your lips

Like the lies between them

That is innocent mistakes

Until you repeat them

The words you said are ripping me apart

I knew it would end like this from the start

Wrong again

Let me go before you break my heart again

Wrong again

One more game that I will never win

Wrong again

Let me go before you break my heart again

Wrong again

You're wrong again

Let me go before you break my heart again (x5)
