

A La Carte, In The Summer Sun Of Greece

In the summer sun of greece dreaming under orange trees
That's the way to live in harmony.

In the summer sun of greece dancing in the cooling breeze
There's no time for sorrow and for tears.

I say good-bye to all the friends of mine
I'm goin' to say farewell to lonelines.

Don't wanna stay

cause now I'm on my way

To find my way of life and happiness I missed.

In the summer sun of greece dreaming under orange trees . . .

In the summer sun of greece dancing in the cooling breeze

There's no time for sorrow and for tears.

Don't start to cry

cause there's no reason why -

If you still love me too

please be my guide.

Imagine then our sweet love in the sand

Take me to paradise

lend me your helping hand.
