

A Letter To You, No You'll Never Know

No, I'm just fine
I'm alright.
Can't you see all that he needs
is for you to greet him on your knees
on your, on your knees
No, you'll never know
You'll never know
You'll never..
You'll never know..
Now I'm beginning to repeat myself
I'm just pointing out these infatuations not a prescription drug, but a short time healer
I know you'll never ever sell yourself short but the message in the bottle left you on the floor screaming...
No, I'm just fine
I'm alright.
Can't you see all that he needs
is for you to greet him on your knees
on your, on your knees
No, you'll never know
You'll never know
You'll never..
You'll never know..
You'll never...
You'll never...
the message in the bottle holds...
the message in the bottle holds...
You'll never...
the message in the bottle holds...
the message in the bottle holds...
No i'm just fine
I'm alright
No i'm just fine.
I'm alright
the message in the bottle read:
don't look back
don't look back
don't look back
the message in the bottle read:
don't look back
Can't you see all that he needs
is for you to greet him on your knees
on your, on your knees
No, you'll never know
You'll never know
