

A New Found Glory, Scraped Knees

Looking back now I see how far I've gone
It's been a while now for only one song
Past intentions
I never ever meant to deal with now
Well, just by looking around
I don't think that I'll ever come down
Well, you know right now that I am
Trying to change
But believe now I'll try to change
Everything you know that I could rearrange
And it gets harder and harder now
Well, you know I want to change the past
Past intentions
I never ever meant to deal with
Just by looking around
Well, you know, I tried so hard to change
Right now
Well, just by looking around
Well, I don't think that I'll ever come down
All the way down
