

A New Found Glory, This Disaster

A New Found Glory
Miscellaneous
This Disaster
Are you aware
Of how much you complicate me
And are you aware
Your words suffocate me
And don't deny You're talking behind my back to your friends
And don't deny
One day you'll need me

All my life I've been looking
For the answers
To the questions
You never asked and
We never planned on this disaster
When will I let it go

So incomplete
Your stare is cold
Unlike anything I have ever seen
So incomplete
Your body is tired and
Falling apart at the seams
I won't deny
I took no part
In ever wanting you back
Don't deny
One day you'll need me

All my life I've been looking for the answers
To the questions
You never asked and
We never planned on this disaster
When will I let it go

If it's tonight
Please let me know
if it's tonight
Why don't you let me know
