A New Found Glory, You've got a friend in Penns

My heart is pumping

For one reason

Maybe it's my imagination

But it's true

It's all in your hands

I no longer

Have this on my shoulders

Oh no

It must be something I said

Love is another word for regret

You know

It must be part of my plan

It's never too late to understand

And I

Wanted it to be

Something more than

Just another run around for me

And I

Even though I'm glad

That I'm finally free

All that's for my life is now up to me

Oh no

It must be something I said

Love is another word for regret

You know

It must be part of my plan

It's never too late to understand

And I

Walk around for days

And I

Only see you in my dreams

My heart is pumpin'

For one reason

Maybe it's my imagination

But it's true

It's all in your hands

I no longer

Have this on my shoulders

Oh no

It must be something I said

Love is another word for regret

You know

It must be part of my plan

It's never too late to understand

And I

Walk around for days

And I

Only see you in my dreams

Dreams

Dreams

Waited for me

Like I've waited for you

Waited for me

(Waited for me)

Like I've waited for you
