

A.P.E., Wow Man

Had a friend who played a little game he played it so much he went mentally insane, oh yeah him and that game will never be apart and hes just sitting in the dark never leaves his basement wont go downtown to pay the rent never fuckin goes outside he rather stay down there and die

[Chorus:]

He's the World of Warcraft man (that poor bastard)

World of Warcraft man (locked in his basement)

Saw him last week grew in his beard gotta admit it looked kinda weird, oh yeah him and the game still not apart and he's just playing in the dark still won't leave the basement getting evicted for not paying the rent won't chill out for a fuckin beer not since World of Warcraft's here

[Chorus]

Come on corey get out now

times wastes away

time is running out time is running out

Went to the bar went to the club not wow man he ain't getting bud, oh yeah

him and that game will never be apart

so he'll remain in the fuckin dark lost his job, lost his girl lost his friends, fuckin lost his world lost everything that he once held dear but fuck em all World of Warcraft's here

[Chorus]
