

A Perfect Circle, The Outsider (Apocalypse Mix)

Help me if you can
It's just that this
It's not the way I'm wired so could you please
Help me understand why
You've given into all these Wreckless dark desires, you're

Lying to yourself again, suicidal imbecile
Put it on faultline
What will it take to get it through to you, precious?
Why would I, why would I, why would I wanna watch you

Disconnect and self-destruct one bullet at a time
What's your rush now?
Everyone will have his day to die

Medicated drama queen
Picture perfect, numb belligerence
Narcissistic drama queen
Craving fame and all its decadence

Lying through your teeth again
Suicidal imbecile
Think about it, put it on a faultline
What'll it take to get it through to you, precious?
I'm over this, why would you wanna throw it away like this?
Such a mess, why would I wanna watch you

Disconnect and self-destruct one bullet at a time
What's your rush now?
Everyone will have his day to die

Lying to my face again
Suicidal imbecile
Think about it, you put it on a faultline
What it take to get it through to you, precious?
Why you wanna throw it away like this?
Such a mess, over this, over this

Have his day to die
Disconnect and self-destruct
Over this
