

A Poetic Yesterday, Serenade For Spiders

A Poetic Yesterday
Serenade For Spiders
we crawl on stage ready to explode, we grow so strong but not enough
of us

it's the smile on her face as she cuts to the chase it's the world, it's the world we create
it's the truth in your eyes as you hide in disguise it's the end! it's the end!
it's the start

we drop and dance around at your feet poised and positioned run and hide... colide

it's the past playing on an it's only begun
it's the world, it's the world
devestate!
it's chaos mixed with greed
as we water our seed
it's the start, it's the start
it's the end!

run!
save yourselfs now
run!
run!
save yourself down

you'll never break me,
you'll never take me,
you'll neve bring us down, down, down

you'll never hate me,
you'll never rate me,
you'll never bring me down, down, down!
