A.R. Kane, Beloved

A.r. Kane Miscellaneous Beloved Yes i want you And i need you The angel just passed me by, oh! I feel like i could change inside I feel like i can change inside Breeze flicker through my mind Feel your body close on mine Inside you: Looking down below See the love flow Then the love go What is love's time Can we ever know?

Electricity blossoms
Sparks in my mind
Then i glow for a while
And i'm gone!
I feel like i could love tonite
I feel like i can love tonite
Wings flutter moon bright
Close my eyes real tight
And find you:

Looking down below See the life grow Then the life blow In a lifetime Can we really know?

My head in the clouds an my Feet on the ground Spinning out of the dream And i'm gone!
