A Shrine, Lavatory Lama

A Shrine Li And Friends Lavatory Lama 'Cause of you I laid in my bed staring at you Watching when you off Well, yeah I'll try To work things out To turn around

But if you won't care Then I won't care And if you won't mind Then I won't mind I won't mind

You're bugging me You're telling me it's time to go To our own Get a different point of view Well, yeah I'll try To work things out To turn around

But if you won't care Then I won't care And if you won't mind Then I won't mind I won't mind

I never wanted more I never tried for more I just kept all I had and went along

But if you won't care Then I won't care And if you won't mind Then I won't mind And if you won't care Then I won't care And if you won't mind Then I won't mind at all
