

A Shrine, Wastebasket

A Shrine
Li And Friends
Wastebasket

Once to a friction, be often the wastebasket
A little while, according to the picture
But now this place's dead, I can't say that I'm sad, oh no
Guess I found a new way, to stay head over heels, all the time

Don't ask you to
As a drug can be
Without lying
Without lying

Every so far, since I threw you away
it's my old phone, don't want your help
'Cause new things never lie, and you lied to me, yeah you did Fucking up myself, I know I always will

Don't ask you to
As a drug can be
Without lying
Without lying

Don't ask you to
As a drug can be
Without lying
Without lying

Don't ask you to
As a drug can be
Without lying
Without lying
