

A Skylit Drive, According To Columbus

Save me
The skin thats stretched across your bones
The scent that lacks the innocents I know
Cold front coming, like blisters threw your pores
Breathing youll trust me darling
Im the sword inside your stone

The rest of your life
May rest in my eyes

Meet me at the skylines
Ill wait for you to go
Ill wait for you to go
Meet me at the skylines
Ill wait for you to go
Ill wait for you

Save me
The skin thats stretched across your bones
The scent that lacks the innocents I know
Cold front coming, like blisters threw your pores
Breathing youll trust me darling
Im the sword inside your stone

The rest of your life
May rest in my eyes

Meet me at the skylines
Ill wait for you to go
Ill wait for you to go
Meet me at the skylines
Ill wait for you to go
Ill wait for you

Meet me at the skylines
Ill wait for you
Meet me at the skylines
Meet me meet me
Meet me at the skylines
Meet me at the skylines
Ill wait for you

I dont think you know
What these words mean
I dont think you know
What we could be
Ill wait forever cause I think youre the one.
