

A Static Lullaby, Half Man, Half Shark; Equals On

we'll light up the segway we'll load them up and ship them out out! out!

tonight this poet dies
his inkwell has spoken its last word his thoughts were left in friction all his hope for substance had faded long ago

you and i both need to know you bleed for, you die , we felt this so headstrong that they're out to get us get us now you bleed for, you die, you die tonight the candle was left burning in a shred of dignity was lost within the flame his fears were left unmentioned his cry for silence had faded long ago

there out to get us now

tonight, tonight, tonight

that they're out to get us get us now

out! out!
