

A*Teens, Back For More

When you think the party's over
Look over your shoulder
We'll be coming back for more
I know I might seem weird
One day I'm around, the next I disappear
This is a crazy act
But I won't think I'm kissing you 'til that's a fact
'Cause always, ever after and more
When you think the party's over
Look over your shoulder
I'm at your door, coming back for more
Dancing in the moonlight
'Til the break of daylight
Like we did before
We'll be coming back for more
We're on a one way ride
And all I need is someone like you by my side
You saw the movie too
We'll ride into the sunset like they always do
For all days, all nights
I'll hurt some more
When you think the party's over
Look over your shoulder
I'm at your door, coming back for more
Dancing in the moonlight
'Til the break of daylight
Like we did before
We'll be coming back for more

We'll be coming back for more
If I'm still number one
The one you're looking for
I won't be gone for long
No, I'll be back for more
When you think the party's over
Look over your shoulder
I'm at your door, coming back for more
Dancing in the moonlight
Like we did before
We'll be coming back for more
When you think the party's over
Look over your shoulder
I'm at your door, coming back for more
Dancing in the moonlight
Like we did before
We'll be coming back for more
When you think the party's over
Like we did before
We'll be coming back for more
