

A Thorn For Every Heart, Next Of Kin

Forgive.
Remember the things I promised you.
Forgotten to love, you know its true.
I tumble then fall for you.
The truth now lies in angry eyes.
This time I'll pay the price.
Pay the price to rise.
These feelings got to go, this pain just takes its toll.
If you need me let me know, I'm here for you.
All my life I learned from you,
The lessons I learned are never through.
Im sorry my father.
With your heart in my hand,
Not breaking it again.
Im sorry, Im sorry
(This will be the end)
Do you ever think of me? (You follow it underneath your skin)
Where do we go to find whats within?
Just let it go, always within (What lies).
Send it away
Always in you.
It falls apart and caves inward.
And Im the only one who floats below the rest
Of the angels, of the angels, of the angels
These feelings got to go, this pain just takes its toll.
If you need me let me know, I'm here for you.
