Paint Me A Pretty Picture

I wish these times would never end today so many hearts will be broken when happiness and sadness pull at every heart string pull at every heart string no one knows where there going and what tomorrow has in store i wish we could all hold hands and come out the other side
i wish we could all hold hands
i can only hope that the memories will never fade in anyone's mind
even when we only have glossy covered pictures reminding us of yesterday
yesterday [x4]
if only i had a picture of today from our hearts for the cover of the scrap book in my mind [x2] please paint me a picture of today before tomorrow takes it away takes it away
i can only hope that the memories never fade in anyone's mind [x2] even when we only have glossy covered pictures [x2]
yesterday [x4]
