Cause of your memory I won't bring it to pistols

But he got issues enough of that lame

I never seen pain like your parents pain

But I know God protecting you

You used to read Seed Of The soul I know God perfecting you

All the extra hues, the darker texture you are the more intellectual

By the way, Big we missing you Pac we missing you

We feel your presence just not in the physical

All across the world, blocks is miserable

Y'all left a void it's alot of little yous and they not original and they not identical

They just studied your flows and they watched your interviews

That's when hip hop if it's not ten of you

Then it gotta be more, y'all left your paws

Footprints on the game hood ain't been the same

Feeling ain't been in music hooks ain't been the same

But I'm doing what I can man and try to follow y'all memory lane man

Big you be ashamed to see New York gangbang

Pac you feel the same thing they use your name in vain

But I guess that's the issue
And it proves how much, niggas really miss you
