

Aaron Carter, I will be yours

I don't know what to do
I can't believe it's true that
You can make me feel this way
I see it in your eyes
It made me realize
There's something that I've got to say
I just wanna tell you that I'm sorry
For all the things I've done to make you worry
And all the time I've cared for you from the bottom of my heart
I will be yours if you'll be mine
I will be there till the end of time
I will be with you until the day that I die
I'll be yours. I'll be yours
I've been around the world
And have seen a lot of girls
But n one can compare to you
It's really plain to see
That you belong to me
Cause you're the only one I need
