Looking at Life Through My Own Eyes (Liberty's Kids theme song)

I see a land with liberty for all

Yet still I know the truth will rise and fall (yeah)

That's just the way it goes, a word now to the wise

The world was made to change, each day is a surprise

Chorus 1: I'm looking at life through my own eyes

I'm seachin'for a hero to idolize

Feeling the pain as innocence dies

I'm Looking at life through my own eyes

I'll take my heart into battle

Give that freedom bell a rattle

Get my Independence signed

Declare it on the dotted line

Let Philadelphia freedom ring and patriotic voices sing

red, white, and blue never give up you represent America!

Chorus 2: Hopin' and prayin' for a brighter day

I listen to my heart and I obey

How can I see it any other way

I'm looking at life (looking at life) through my own eyes
