

Aaron Neville, I Fall To Pieces

Patsy Cline

(Trisha Yearwood and Aaron Neville)

I fall to pieces

Each time I see you again

I fall to pieces

How can I be just your friend

You want me to act

Like we've never kissed

You want me to forget

Pretend we've never met

And I try and I try

But I haven't yet

You walk by and I fall to pieces

solo

I fall to pieces

Each time someone speaks your name

I fall to pieces

Time only acts to the play

You tell me to find someone else to love

Someone who loves me too

The way you used to do

But each time I go out with someone new

You walk by and I fall to pieces
