Aaron Neville, Stardust

And now the purple dust of twilight time Steals across the meadows of my heart High up in the sky, the little stars climb Always reminding me that we're apart You wander down the lane and far far away Leaving me a song that will not die Love is now the stardust of yesterday The music of the years gone by. gone by.

Sometimes I wonder why I spend The lonely nights
Dreaming of a song
That melody haunts my reverie
And I am once again with you
When our love was new
And each kiss an inspiration
Ah, but that was long ago
Now my consolation
Is in the stardust of a song

Beside a garden wall
When stars are bright
You were in my arms
That nightingale tells his fairy tale
of paradise where roses bloom
Though I dream in vain
In my heart it will remain
My stardust melody
The memory of love's refrain.
(love's refrain)

Beside a garden wall
When stars are bright
You are in my arms
That nightingale tells his fairy tale
of paradise where roses bloom
Though I dream in vain
In my heart it will remain
My stardust melody
The memory of love's refrain.
