

Aaron, O-Song

Warm place calm and quiet small grace white birds high up you know fireworks and fairy tales and dragonfly in my summer mind soft sand dark skin palm trees and sun cream easy talking in the bed
I drink your lies
with some corona
and the heat smells good close to your head right in the streets of Barcelona dangerous, looks fake beautiful mistake
how come such a big storm in these green eyes
easy talking in the bed
the heat smells good close to your head
don't care what people say I'm dreaming louder everyday
