

Aaron Pritchett, How Do I Get There

It's a long, long way from here to you
Tell me how do I get there?
There's so much I wish I could undo
Tell me how do I get there?
Can a million wrong turns ever turn me around
Can I ever unburn the bridges I burned to the ground
Nowhere is too far, yeah, I'd go anywhere
Tell me how do I get there from here
Your touch is beyond my fingertips
It lingers in the air
Your heart is where forgiveness is
Tell me how do I get there
Can a million wrong turns ever turn me around
Can I ever unburn the bridges I burned to the ground
Nowhere is too far, yeah, I'd go anywhere
Tell me how do I get there from here

I'm standing here asking where to go
With all I am, all I wanna know
So can a million wrong turns ever turn me around
Can I ever unburn the bridges I burned to the ground
Nowhere is too far, yeah, I'd go anywhere
Tell me how, tell me how
Nowhere is too far, yeah, I'd go anywhere
Tell me how do I get there
Tell me how do I get there from here
Well, how do I get there?
Oh, please tell me now, how do I get there?
Oh, tell me now, how do I get there?
Tell me how do I get there
