

Aaron Rothe, What Beautiful Is

And your eyes you should see the way they glow when you smile the way your laughter sets the world on fire i take for granted all the moments that im with you im with you
'cause your beauty takes my breath away and i love it when im asked to stay and i'd bring you flowers every day to show you its not your make-up or your hair at all its the girl underneath it all
that amazes me
and you are
what beautiful is
what beautiful is
and i recall all the times we spent together in the park throwing sticks under the bridges not too far i'd close my eyes and underneath my breath i'd say i'd say that your beauty takes my breath away
its the girl underneath it all
what beautiful is
what beautiful is today was long all i thought about was singin you this song and how you'd take it if you took it in at all and i really just want you to understand to understand
its the girl underneath it all
what beautiful is
what beautiful is
what beautiful is
yeah
and your beauty takes my breath away
i'd bring you flowers every day to show you
what beautiful is
what beautiful is
what beautiful is
what beautiful is
and you are what beautiful is
