

Aaron Shust, Can't Hide From Your Love

I was lost and I was blind
I was begging for a sign
That someone
Somewhere heard me
As You whispered in the wind
And You shouted in the waves
That You heard me
That You loved me
And I could finally
Stop resisting
You're Everything I ever wanted
And never knew I needed
You're Everywhere I ever go
I can't hide from Your Love anymore
I begin to drop my guard
Faithful as the Morning Star
You show me tender mercy
I'm surrounded by Your beauty
I get lost in Heaven's
Symphony
It never changes
Never ending
Unrelenting
Why would I want to?
I don't want to
