

Aaron Sprinkle, All That's Left Of Me

Find me, hide me
In a hollowed out tree
When you find me
Will you hide me?

See you, see through
Everything that I do
When I see you
Will you see through?

Sleep tight, slipping quiet
Into the night
Will you help me?
Will you help me?

Slipping towards the opening
Empty out all that's left of me

Sleep tight, slipping quiet
Into the night
Will you help me?
Will you help me?

See you, see through
Everything that I do
Will you help me?
Will you help me?
