

Aaron Sprinkle, Signing My Name

Showing your self
In an unusual way
I understand you now
Your secrets safe and sound

Minding my own
Business is not something new
But it takes some self control
Not that you would know

(chorus)
I'm my own man now it's easier
Climbing the staircase wondering what's to see

My oh my how
This does turn things quite around
Tomorrow will be
Here before you know it dear

Signing my name
In through the window you peek
I'm fixing my mistakes
Is this all that it takes

(chorus)
