

Aaron Tippin, Love Like There's No Tomorrow

Right now gonna take you in my arms hold you closer and tighter than I ever have I'm gonna say all the things that I thought could wait now I realize that later could be a little too late baby let's love like there's no tomorrow live for every moment

laugh atleast alittle everyday if we see the sun rise in the morning is impossible to say so let's love like there's no tomorrow
today

from now on on every time we kiss it's gonna mean so much more when I touch your lips when i give myself to you baby I won't hold nothin' back cause there's nothin' I wouldn't give to make every minute last

baby let's love like there's no tomorrow
laugh atleast alittle everyday
if we see the sun rise in the morning
is impossible to say
