

Abandon, Atmosphere

I'm captured by the love and I have become Your own
Surrounded by my God I'm rising above the shadows
You want me to know
I'm not alone
You want me to come to Your throne
I know
It's in Your atmosphere
Your spirit is here
I can't explain this moment
In Your atmosphere
Your love becomes real
My heart begins to sink into Your hands
You're raining over me flooding my soul with peace
In sin You show mercy my gracious King
I'll come and hear You say
You're precious to me
It's in Your atmosphere
