Abandoned Pools, Monster

Everyone's a genius Brushing up on irony But no, no ones free Everyone's a salesman Gushing with sincerity Or so, so it seems

I wanna go another round I wanna throw the monster down I wanna go another round 'Cause I am coming up I am coming back

Everyone's a rock star Look how cool and dark you are Oh whats to come Of me now Bust out the mission Well, bust a hole and you'll be free Okay, then we'll be free

I wanna go another round I wanna throw the monster down I wanna go another round 'Cause I am coming up I am coming back

Lay me on the table Operate on me Spin me like a record Scratch the needle Back and forth

I wanna go another round I wanna throw the monster down I wanna go another round I wanna throw the monster down I wanna go another round 'Cause I am coming up I am coming back I am coming up I am coming back
