

ABC, Paper Thin (1986 Demo)

Rich and wealthy canvas
Clustered up in jewels
Finding all your heavyweights
Are featherweights and fools
Broken all your promises
Broken all your paper plates
Clustered in gold
Crusted in gold
Heavy and hollow
Look at the shape we're in
Find us here
Paper thin
Heavy and humble
Look at the shape we're in
Find us here
Paper thin
In origami cities
In nations build on sand
Love got bend right outta shape
Things got outta hand
Polystyrene skylines
Pappier smiles
Rusted and bruised
Tarnished and frail
Heavy and hollow
Look at the shape we're in
Find us here
Paper thin
Heavy and humble
Look at the shape we're in
Find us here
Paper thin
Paper thin
Paper thin
Stars scrape the moon
And the moon scrapes the sky
We stand beneath
Wondering why, why
Stars scrape the moon
And the moon scrapes the sky
We stand beneath
Wondering, wondering why
Paper buys the men
The men that make the bomb
The bomb that makes this world
Paper thin
Money markets crumble
Gentle as a drum
But if you see me stumble, I'm
Paper thin
Life is but a fragile thing
So delicate and pure
An accolade bestowed on us
Paper thin
So contemplate the skull
The skull beneath the skin
One day we all die, we're
Paper thin
Bury your destruction
In your last battle hymn
The barriers between us, make 'em all
Paper thin, paper thin
Underneath this paper moon

The sky is paper thin
Torn into a thousand shreds
So let the solar system in
Finding all your heavyweights
Nothing ends as planned
And it's all
And it's all, paper thin
