

ABC, Unlock The Secrets Of Your Heart

Do you remember sunday nights, summer time at Shoom
Joy big enough to fill the world, just inside that room
Do you remember Friday nights at the Hacienda?
Armistace for gangs, no fights, just beats to make the world surrender

Was it all a dream?
Was it some nightmare?
Crazy as it seems
Love was in the air
No war, no hate, no more
If you'd unlock the secrets of your
No war, no hate, no more
If you'd unlock the secrets of your heart

Day to day existence got its gentle grip on you
Suffocating your soul, eclipsing everything you do

(chorus)

Everybody just looking for an answer
Everybody till the day they die
Everybody live with indecision
Everybody seek, everybody find
Everybody want to dance till sunrise
Everybody want to sweat some noise
Everybody want to kiss that DJ
Every single girl, every single boy
Everybody got their own sweet wisdom
Everybody just a look to start
Everybody got it, inside their heart

(chorus)

No war, no hate, no more
