

Abducted, Teenage Vandalism

i gotta can of spray paint and i just wrote your name in six foot high letters on city hall why don't you see?
cause i keep standing here waiting for you to say something
and i keep standing here
waiting for you to do something but you stand so far away so far away you'll never see me so what the f*ck should i do should i draw blood to make you notice me i just beat up a nazi skinhead at your feet and you didn't even look at me why dont you see?
