Abe Vigoda, Dead City / Waste Wilderness

I bring my whole body
I know I can beat it
How do I know you're sleeping?
I can always see it
We run through the dead city
How do I know you're sleeping
I can run through dead city
I will always fall
I built a house, I fell a tree
I built a family, you and me
Take me home
I know I want it
Won't be long
I know I can't be scared...
