

Abi & Esther Ofarim, In The Morning

In the morning when the moon is out to trust

You will see me at the time I love the best.
Watching rainbows play on sunlights

Pools of water
ice stream cold nights.
In the morning
it is the morning of my life.

In the daytime I will meet you as before

You will find me waiting by the ocean floor.
Building castles in the shifting sands

In a world that no-one understands.
In the morning
it is the morning of my life.

In the morning of my life

The minutes takes so long to drift away.
Please be patient with your life

It's only morning and you've still to live your day.

In the evening I will fly to the moon

To the topright hand corner of the ceiling in my room.
Where we'll stay until the sun shines

Another day to swing on the clothes lines.
May I be yawning
it is the morning of my life

It is the morning of my life.
In the morning
in the morning
in the morning.
