

Abigail, Don't You Wanna Know

Dark clouds above your head
All I see is blue sky
Love's shining light on me
Let me see through your eyes
I never needed someone else
It's too revealing
It'll only try to pull yourself in believing

Don't you wanna know
How I feel
Don't you wanna know

How I feel

Love lets you down again
But I made my own choice
Can't seem to find your way
When you speak with my voice
Everything's wrong that could be right
I was so excited
Don't be afraid, of all your light
Just fight it
